

Applying for a Driver's License, Temporary Visitor Driver's License or Illinois State ID Card

Can I use my home country Driver's License in the U.S.?

- Illinois law permits students at Illinois colleges and universities to drive on a valid license from their home state or country. Please see Illinois Rules of the Road, page 5: "Individuals may drive in Illinois without a valid Illinois driver's license if they meet one of the following circumstances: Are an out-of-state student attending an Illinois college/university; they and their spouse and children may drive with a valid license from their home state or country".
- Each state sets its own laws regarding driving, so if you plan to drive through other U.S. states, you MUST be sure that your foreign driver's license will work there as well.
- Please note that there is no such thing as an International Driver's License, but there is an International Driving Permit which is issued in your home country. The International Driving Permit translates your license to make it easier for U.S. officials to read, but by itself does not give you permission to drive in the state of Illinois.

How to obtain an Illinois Driver's License as an International Student:

- If you have a Social Security Number → you may apply for a State of Illinois Driver's License
- If you do not have a Social Security Number → you may apply for a Temporary Visitor Driver's License

You may be asked about registering to vote while you are at the DMV; it is very important that you DO NOT register to vote. When you register to vote you are stating that you are a U.S. citizen; if you are not a U.S citizen, you will be committing a voter fraud and will be deportable from the United States.

TEMPORARY VISITOR DRIVER'S LICENSE (TVDL)

The Illinois DMV is currently not requiring the denial letter from the Social Security Office as of July 2020. This is always subject to change. The applicant must sign a declaration on the TVDL application that the applicant is, at the time of application, ineligible to obtain a Social Security number.

What is a Temporary Visitor Driver's License?

- A Temporary Visitor Driver's License (TVDL) is issued by the Secretary of State's Office for non-U.S. citizens who are temporarily in Illinois and cannot get a Social Security number.
- A TVDL is issued for the purpose of driving a car. However, it is different from an Illinois Driver's License because the words "Not Valid for Identification" appear on the TVDL.
- A TVDL is issued for a MAXIMUM of 3 years or the period of time a non-citizen is authorized to stay in the U.S., whichever period is shorter
- Please Note: Applicants for TVDL must be authorized to stay in the U.S. for at least 1 year and must have at least 6 months remaining on the authorized stay when they apply for a TVDL.
